

CONNECT THE DOTS

To connect these dots in the correct order, you will need to put the books in the order they appear in the Bible. HINT: Start with Joshua. After you finish, find the Bible verse in the middle. What does it say about God's Word?

Jeremiah Wrote God's Words

JEREMIAH 36

When King Jehoiakim (jih-HOY-uh-kim) had been king of Judah for four years, God spoke to the prophet, Jeremiah. God said, "Take a scroll and write My words on it. Perhaps if the people hear about all the disasters I am planning to bring to them, they will turn from their evil ways. Then I will forgive their sin."

Jeremiah called for his scribe, Baruch (BAY-rook). As Jeremiah spoke God's words, Baruch wrote them on a scroll. Then Jeremiah told Baruch to go to the temple and read the words to the people.

One man heard the words on the scroll and went to tell the king's officials in the palace. The officials sent for Baruch and asked him to read the words. When they heard, they looked at each other in fear and asked, "How did you write this?"

Baruch explained, "Jeremiah told me God's words, and I wrote them on the scroll in ink."

The officials told Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide. Do not tell anyone where you are."

King Jehoiakim was at his winter house. It was cold, and he had a fire burning. The king sent his servant, Jehudi (jih-HYOO-digh), to get the scroll. As Jehudi read the words, the king and his men were not afraid of God's warning. Instead, as soon as Jehudi read part of the scroll, the king would cut off that part with a knife and throw it into the fire! He did this until the entire scroll was burned!

God spoke to Jeremiah again, "Take another scroll and write on it the same words I told you to write on the first scroll. Tell King Jehoiakim that I will bring about the disaster on him and the people. I warned them, but they did not listen."

Jeremiah gave another scroll to Baruch. Baruch wrote the same words as before, and God added many more words to the new scroll.
