Elijah on Mount Carmel

1 KINGS 18

King Ahab was the Israelite king. He was a terrible king who disobeyed God. He was leading the people of Israel to worship the false god Baal. There had not been rain in Israel for three years and there was a severe famine which was a shortage of food. God told the prophet Elijah there would be rain again. God asked Elijah to go speak to King Ahab. Elijah asked King Ahab to meet him on Mount Carmel with the people of Israel and the prophets who worshiped the false god Baal.

Elijah spoke to everyone at Mount Carmel. He told the people if they believed the Lord is God, they should follow Him, but if they believed in Baal, then follow Baal. Elijah challenged King Ahab. The prophets of Baal would build an altar and present a sacrifice, calling out to Baal to send fire to the altar. Elijah would build an altar to God and ask Him to send fire.

The prophets of Baal built their altar and called out to Baal for hours. They danced and shouted loudly. Elijah laughed at them, he said maybe Baal was sleeping. Fire never came to their altar.

Elijah built an altar to God. He dug a trench that could hold a lot of water. He sent the people to fill pots of water three times to get the altar completely wet, filling the trench. Elijah prayed to God. Fire fell from the sky and burned the offering, the wood, the stones, and the dirt. There was no water left in the trench.

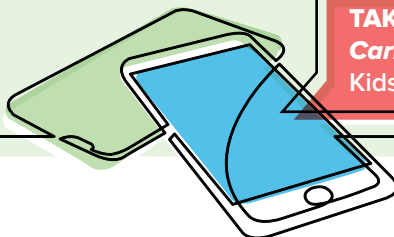

When the people saw it, they fell facedown and said, "The Lord, he is God!"

Soon after, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, and a heavy rain came down.
